Re: U.S. Patent Application for
System and Method for Displaying and Selling Goods and Services
Our File No. S255 1010.1 (49587.0007.1)

Dear Richard:

Further to our letter of August 23, 2006 in which we informed you that we could no longer represent the inventors in the referenced application, we have now filed with the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office a Request for Withdrawal as Attorney for nonpayment of bills for an extended period of time.

The pending claims in the referenced application were rejected by the Examiner who also made the rejection final in an Official Action mailed November 29, 2005. We filed a Notice of Appeal in this application on May 30, 2006. An Appeal Brief was due on July 30, 2006. The period for filing an Appeal Brief or taking another action in the referenced application, such as the filing of a Request for Continued Examination (RCE) can be extended up to five (5) months from the original due date of July 30, 2006. Thus you have until December 30, 2006 in which to file an Appeal Brief or an RCE. Both the Appeal Brief and the RCE require additional fees to be paid to the U.S. Patent and Trademark Office. We are paying the extension of time fee for the two month extension of time from July 30, 2006 to September 30, 2006. An additional extension of time fee also must be paid when filing a response, the fee varying with the number of months of the extended time period beyond September 30, 2006.

Concurrently with filing the Request for Withdrawal as Attorney, we are also filing a continuation application that claims priority to the referenced patent application. The continuation application includes claims 1 - 33 that correspond to pending claims 10 - 42 in the referenced application, but with additional claim limitations in independent claims 1, 5, 6, 7, 17 and 19. We are filing the continuation application without payment of fees. Should you decide that you want to pursue the claims in the continuation application, you will need to pay the filing fee, search fee and publication fee which total $425.00 for a small entity, plus an excess claim fee of $625.00 and an excess application size fee of $125.00 for filing an application that exceeds 100 pages. You will also be required to pay a $65.00 missing parts fee for late payment of the continuation filing fees.

You will be notified directly by the Patent and Trademark Office when the Request for Withdrawal as Attorney is approved.

We wish you and your co-inventors success in your pursuit of a patent on your invention.

Best regards,
